

Prior changes in the rules regarding ownership and cross-ownership almost ensured the current media concentration and combination. Further relaxation in the rules would ensure acceleration of these conditions. The proposed rule changes should be rejected. At the very least, the time allowed should be extended and public hearings conducted.